

Bank of Ceylon opens new CRM Machine at Madhu Shrine

Most Rev. Dr. Anthonipillai Gnanapragasam, Bishop of the Diocese of Mannar opening the new Cash Recycling Machine (CRM) at the Shrine of Our Lady of Madhu.

Bank of Ceylon (BOC) further strengthened its digital banking network by opening a new Cash Recycling Machine (CRM) at the historic Shrine of Our Lady of Madhu.

The ceremonial opening of the new CRM machine was graced by Most Reverend Dr. Anthonipillai Gnanapragasam, Bishop of the Diocese of Mannar, as the Chief Guest. S Pirapaharan presided over the event as the Assistant General Manager of the Northern Province; the Operations Manager and Area Managers also participated, along with other officials. The new facility aims to provide greater convenience and improved access to banking services for pilgrims and devotees to the sacred shrine.

This initiative reflects BOC’s continued commitment to expanding its digital banking network and bringing modexarn, accessible and convenient banking services closer to communities across Sri Lanka.
