

An Evening At Turret

TURRET celebrated its fifth anniversary at its luxury flagship store on Dharmapala Mawatha, Colombo 3.

The evening was graced by distinguished guests, Swiss Ambassador Hanspeter Mock and his wife; the German Ambassador Jörn Rohde and other eminent guests. Jawzi and Jezmi Dastakeer, Directors of Royal Lanka Agencies, upon welcoming the dignitaries, provided an opportunity for the guests to witness the luxury brands on display at the TURRET showroom.

TURRET has been showcasing an array of world-class brand wears such as Montblanc, Baume et Mercier, Raymond Weil as well as United Colors of Benetton and TURRET’s signature jewellery brand, Jewel Laurel. Neat displays of elegant and classy collections attracted the eyes of the invitees. They were spellbound by the marvellous collections of masterpieces on display at the flagship store.

> WTURRET Maintains A Higher Level Of Standard And Service Excellence, Without Compromising On Quality.

Montblanc is a name that is synonymous with luxury writing instruments, timepieces and leather products and is renowned as a symbol of excellence. Originating in Germany it is recognised for exquisitely handcrafted, stylish and classy pieces. Baume et Mercier is the seventh oldest Swiss watchmaker in the world and continues to create unique designs that personifies excellence and luxury. The Swiss-make, Raymond Weil is a brand that blends ergonomics, refinement and modernity. The Jewel Laurel section dazzled with elegant and dainty collections of jewelleries and exquisite gems.

Featuring top notch brands, TURRET maintains a higher level of standard and service excellence, without compromising on quality.

MONT BLANC
MONT BLANC
BUSINESS TODAY