

BOC Connect expands banking access with New Center at Welipennagahamula

At the new BOC Connect Banking Center – Welipennagahamula Post Office.

The Bank of Ceylon continues to expand access to financial services across the country by opening a new BOC Connect Banking Center at the Welipennagahamula Post Office in the Kurunegala District of the North Western Province. BOC Connect is an innovative agency banking initiative that enables customers to access essential banking services through authorized service points. The services offered include cash deposits, withdrawals, fund transfers and bill payments, providing customers with greater convenience and accessibility while eliminating the need to visit Conventional bank branches for these transactions.

The opening ceremony was attended by Thusitha Hulangamuwa, Deputy Postmaster General (Development), R Gunarathne, Deputy Postmaster General (NWP), Sameera D. Liyanage, CMO, Bank of Ceylon, M. K. N. D. Sampath, Assistant General Manager NWP of the Bank of Ceylon, along with several other senior officials representing both institutions.
