

Introducing DFCC Freelancer World Mastercard Credit Card

DFCC Bank has launched the DFCC Freelancer World Mastercard credit card. This credit card is the first of its kind to target Sri Lanka’s growing freelancer community, providing a tailored financial service that is ideally suited to their dynamic needs.

Aasiri Iddamalgoda, Senior Vice President of Retail Banking and SME at DFCC Bank, the aim of this initiative is to empower dynamic individuals who are using their talents to provide specialized services to a global audience, including those using platforms such as Uber, Fiver, and Upwork. DFCC Freelancer World Mastercard reflects DFCC Bank’s commitment to inclusivity and innovation in the banking sector. The new credit card offers freelancers several benefits and privileges, including a two percent cashback on foreign currency transactions, giving them a competitive edge in the global market. Freelancers can earn a one percent cashback on all other transactions, making this credit card a rewarding choice for their day-to-day expenses. One key feature of DFCC Bank Credit Cards is the ease with which the cashback they offer can be redeemed and credited directly into any DFCC Bank account as cash, resulting in real and tangible savings. DFCC Freelancer World Mastercard credit card is designed to cater to the needs of freelancers. For instance, the card offers interest-free EMI plans that can help ease the burden of large expenditures, empowering freelancers to manage their finances effectively.

DFCC Bank is ranked among Business Today’s Top 40 Corporates in Sri Lanka.
