MBA from CIMA and Deakin

CIMA and Deakin University have teamed up to offer an accelerated MBA for Chartered Management Accountants. The MBA will be made available to all CIMA members around the world. “Since International MBA providers are venturing into the Australian market, the Deakin Business School is expanding its activities overseas. We are delighted to add CIMA to our other partnerships with industry and professional organizations;’ Tanya Castleman, Deakin Business School Professor said. “CIMA remains the only international accountancy body with a sole focus on accountants in business. With members and students in over 158 countries, this important development represents a significant benefit to CIMA members;’ Robert Jelly, Director of Education CIMA said at the launch.
