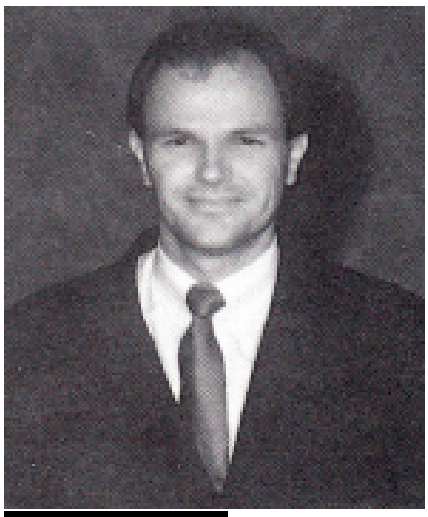
New General Manager at KLM

A reception was held at the Hotel Galadari recently to introduce Peter Davidse, the new General Manager of KLM Royal Dutch Airlines, to the local corporate sector, travel trade and diplomatic corporations. This occasion also. doubled into a farewell to out-going General Manager Franz Cramer and Director Sega Nagendra. Taking over are Ken Sellayah Director and Deanath Kulathunge General Manager of Carsons Airline Services (Pvt) Ltd.



Welcoming Peter Davidse, the Vice Chairman of Carsons, Hari Selvanathan expressed his confidence that the new General Manager would lead the airline to fly even greater heights. He also thanked Franz Cramer for his dedicated service especially during the traumatic period following the Central Bank bomb blast when the KLM office was destroyed. Also present on this occasion was Karel Bram Stellar, Area Vice President KLM.
