

SriLankan Airlines welcomes Raid Amazones 2026: The adventure returns!

SriLankan Airlines extended a warm Sri Lankan welcome to 146 participants, crew members and media personnel of Raid Amazones 2026, who arrived in Colombo on flight UL564 from Paris, marking the arrival of the first group for this year’s adventure expedition, which brings together a total of 300 people on the island. Adding a special touch to the occasion, the flight was operated by an all-female team of pilots and cabin crew, making it a fitting celebration of women empowerment, achievement and the spirit of adventure that lies at the heart of Raid Amazones. As the naming rights partner of Raid Amazones 2026, SriLankan Airlines is proud to connect these extraordinary women with the island of dreams as they prepare to embark on an unforgettable journey filled with adventure, exploration, cultural discovery and togetherness.

With its breathtaking landscapes, rich cultural heritage and renowned hospitality, Sri Lanka is ready to offer the participants a memorable experience as they discover the many wonders of the island. The arrival marks the beginning of an exciting journey, celebrating the strength, resilience, and adventurous spirit of women from around the world.
