

Tokyo Cement Annual Dealer Convention 2009

A leading private sector cement company, Tokyo Cement held its Annual Dealer Convention at the Hilton Colombo recently. Dealers from across the country were recognised for their contributions throughout the year at this event.
The highlights of the Convention included an evening of music and dance and presenting of tokens of appreciation that gave a sense of camaraderie between the Company and their valued partners in success – the dealers.

