505 Celebrates First Anniversary

The 505 branded designer eyewear store by Vision Care Optical Services, Union Place celebrated its first anniversary after a year of successful operations. The exclusive Luxottica branded outlet is the first of its kind in Sri Lanka and offers globally renowned eyewear such as Ray Ban, Vogue, Oakley, Dolce & Gabbana, Prada, Michael Kors, Coach, Bylgari, Giorgio Armani, Burberry, Emporio Armani, and Versace manufactured and distributed by the Luxottica Group. Srimantha Wewalwala, GM, Vision Care congratulated the team at 505 on reaching the historic milestone of its first anniversary. It has been a successful year for the designer eyewear store as Sri Lanka’s first branded luxury eyewear store, showcasing all the highend brands from Luxottica that a customer could want. “We are grateful for Luxottica’s partnership. I commend the hard work and brilliance shown by the 505 team to offer an unmatched experience, thereby creating a base of loyal customers who appreciate the superior service they receive whenever they walk into 505. As the demand for branded eyewear expands in Sri Lanka, we see tremendous future prospects as a leader in designer eyewear. Vision Care has always been a revolutionary trailblazer in eye care solutions and the success of 505 reflects its distinctive offering.” Conveniently located in close proximity to residential and corporate centers, 505 also offers a Kids Clinic. The playful and attractive surroundings are ideal for specialists to examine children’s eyes with specialized technological instruments.