A Celebration of Women and the Launch of La Vivente Privé Circle

Where every achievement tells a story of trust and connection.

La Vivente hosted a High Tea in celebration of International Women’s Day, bringing together 150 of its top-tier clientele. Held in an elegant and sophisticated setting, the event served as a heartfelt tribute to the inspiring women who have been an integral part of the brand’s journey and success. Guests experienced a refined afternoon filled with warm conversations, appreciation, and meaningful connections. The occasion also marked the official launch of the “La Vivente Privé Circle” loyalty program, curated to offer exclusive privileges and personalized experiences. The High Tea beautifully reflected La Vivente’s commitment to empowering women while fostering lasting relationships and a strong sense of community.
