

A Royal Welcome, A Royal Stay

Tintagel, the cozy haven set in resplendence was the ‘home-away-from-home’ for HRH The Prince of Wales and HRH The Duchess of Cornwall during their visit to Sri Lanka for the Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting 2013. Swathed in flowers, the beauty of the abode was enhanced to reflect the exuberance of this momentous honour where attention to detail was given to ensure the utmost comfort of the Royal visitors-professing a regal stay. A fusion of all necessary ‘ingredients’ and proper decorum paved the way for a memorable stay that is bound to resound in the memory of the Royal visitors for years to come…

Shanth Fernando, Proprietor and Designer of Tintagel and his family welcomed the Royal Guests.
