AAI Rewards

The Life Insurance arm of Asian Alliance Insurance, rewarded 25 of its top achievers with an all expenses paid 3-day trip to Bangkok recently. All those who met the organization’s accepted quality standards were also invited to an Achiever’s Family Weekend and an Achiever’s Day get together.

The winners were selected in a new business competition, ‘The Professional Personality in November 2005’ with the criteria for participation being the levels of new business volume and the quality and customer retention achieved through professional methodology in selling.
