Chethiya Perera, CEO/MD, Adaaran Resorts, Maldives, and Director, Aitken Spence Hotels Holdings, Sri Lanka, said, “Most of the international hotel brands are present in the Maldives and everyone competes to provide the best level of luxury. At Adaaran, we differ ourselves by providing our valued guests unique concepts offering luxury and the highest standards, in fulfilling their personal preferences. At Adaaran Prestige, guests tailor-make their own holiday and we deliver it.”

Situated on Meedhupparu Island in Raa Atoll, the 20 luxury water villas are the epitome of unparalleled comfort and pampering to the most discerning traveller, complete with a 5-star International Institute of Modern Butlers (IIMB) London-awarded personal butler service, providing ‘the next level in luxury.’

Each suite has been made with meticulous attention to detail by a French interior de-signer to satisfy guest’s every requirement in offering total comfort and luxury. The spacious villas are equipped with private jacuzzis on their open sun decks, large screen LCD TV, home theatre system, a collection of DVDs to select from, an es-presso machine amongst many other amenities.

The Water Villas are complemented with an exclusive over water restaurant and bar, though guests have total flexibility in meal times, dining locations; an infinity swimming pool located within a beautifully landscaped garden; a Balinese spa, ayurveda treatment centre, authentic Chinese reflexology, diving, snorkelling, water sports and different types of excursions to choose from, plus gym, sauna, tennis, discotheques and daily entertainment.

The Adaaran resorts own eight properties which include the Adaaran ‘Prestige’ Water Villas, Adaaran ‘Prestige’ Ocean Villas, and its latest addition, The Adaaran ‘Prestige’ Vadoo, due to commence operations in February 2009.
