

Altair -A Top Attraction At Maldives Living Expo 2019

Pradeep Moraes, Director, Altair with Aminath Athifa, Maldivian Minister of Housing who was the Chief Guest at the event, and members of the Altair team that participated in the Maldives Living Expo 2019.

The Maldives Living Expo 2019, which was supported by Altair both as an exhibitor and a co-sponsor, attracted more than 5,800 visitors interested in luxury living options in the archipelago and the region. In its seventh edition, the three-day exhibition focused on Home and Living Lifestyle, offering visitors an opportunity to get more information about upcoming real estate properties, products, services and options available in the Maldives and neighbouring countries. The 30 exhibitors showcased properties ranging from the utmost luxury to affordable living and lifestyle options. Altair is a one-of-its-kind development in South Asia in terms of architectural design, structural engineering, and living experience, comprising of two tower blocks, a 63-storey sloping tower which leans in to a taller, 68-storey vertical tower. Altair's 400 apartments offer spectacular views of the Beira Lake, the Indian Ocean and the city of Colombo.