

An Affair To Remember By Zeba Kohli And Häfele

In collaboration with India's renowned Chocolatier Zeba Kohli, Häfele presented an innovative chocolate experience at the state-of-the-art Häfele Design Centre located in the heart of Colombo. Presenting a fine fusion of innovation and design, Zeba Kohli created diverse installations and exquisite artworks in chocolate that were incredibly displayed against the Häfele fittings and settings.

Zeba Kohli, being an enthusiast of Sri Lankan spices and tea, created delicate tea and spices infused chocolates.

Speaking on the occasion, Jurgen Wolf, the Managing Director, Häfele South Asia, stated, "Design concepts and ideas can be better understood when they are experienced in LIVE set-ups. This is the ideology that backs the company's initiative of establishing state-of-the-art design showrooms; where customers can walk in and experience world-class functionality, seamlessly rooted in latest global design trends".

Zeba Kohli, sharing her thoughts on the event, stated, "It's been exciting to create installations out of pure chocolate. This event truly brings together indulgence, luxury and design, which is a winning combination that those with a taste for the finer things in life will appreciate".
