Rohitha Bogoffagama, Minister of Enterprise Development and Investment Promotion with Sushantha Ratnayake, Chairman of JKH speaking at the press conference

President Rajapaksa on his recent visit to India, in the presence of Rohitha Bogollama, Minister of Enterprise Development and Investment Promotion, entered into a MoU between the BOI of Sri Lanka and the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII).

The aim of the MoU is to promote investment relations between Sri Lanka and India. It has been agreed that the CII and BOI will exchange investment related information and regularly consult with each other with a view to promoting investment between the two countries.

The information exchanged and consultation will include the identification of sectors with high investment potential, areas and formats of investment cooperation, and investment related problems and solutions.

The two entities will also reciprocally support and facilitate investment fact-finding and business development missions. They will also collaborate with the Ceylon

Chamber of Commerce and form a committee, which would review the status of investments annually.

The BOI and CII will support and promote through their publicity media activities such as seminars, exhibitions and conferences in industrial sectors agreed upon between them.

The MoU will initially be valid for three years and be renewed upon the mutual agreement between the two entities.
