Priyal Silva, Deputy General Manager (Branch Operations), BOC.

The Bank of Ceylon honored its top performers at the 'BOC Spirit Awards 2024,' recognizing exceptional achievements across its nationwide network of 660 branches and a workforce of over 8,200 employees.

The event was attended by Kavinda de Zoysa, the Chairman of BOC, members of the Board of Directors, Russel Fonseka, General Manager and Chief Executive Officer, along with the bank's corporate and executive management.

Together, they celebrated 88 award winners who demonstrated excellence in branch performance, digital adoption, and operational efficiency. The ceremony marked BOC's remarkable 2024 journey, achieving a record profit of 106.9 billion rupees while promoting financial empowerment. Award winners were chosen through a rigorous evaluation process, contributing to enhanced customer satisfaction and economic growth. While recognizing the top performers, the Chairman encouraged all branches to view the ceremony as motivation to reach even greater heights in the coming year.

Priyal Silva, DGM – Branch Operations, said, "Today we honor not just achievements, but also the dedication that makes the Bank of Ceylon the nation's leading financial institution. Our branches are where our strategy comes alive, where we connect with customers and fulfill our promise of trust and excellence." Silva particularly acknowledged the collective efforts of all staff members, stating that "every improvement, no matter how small, contributes to our larger success."

The ceremony was a joyful celebration that showcased the bank's commitment to its customers, with full support from the Board and management.

It's inspiring to see how our team's hard work enhances experiences for everyone we serve.
