Bank of Ceylon presents 2024 Annual Report

Kavinda de Zoysa, Chairman, BOC handed over the report to Dr Anil Jayantha Fernando, Minister of Economic Development in the presence of W. P. Russel Fonseka, General Manager and Chief Executive Officer of BOC, along with M.P. Ruwan Kumara, Chief Financial Officer, BOC.

The Bank of Ceylon (BOC) has officially presented its Annual Report for the year 2024, emphasizing its commitment to transparency and financial management.

Kavinda de Zoysa, the Chairman, BOC, handed the annual report to Dr. Anil Jayantha Fernando, Minister of Economic Development; K. M. Mahinda Siriwardana, Secretary to the Treasury and Ministry of Finance, Economic Stabilization, and National Policies; and Dr. P. Nandalal Weerasinghe, Governor of the Central Bank of Sri Lanka.

The presentation took place in the presence of W. P. Russel Fonseka, GM/CEO, BOC, along with M. P. Ruwan Kumara, Chief Financial Officer. This event highlighted the Bank’s strong commitment to fulfilling its responsibilities as the leading state-owned financial institution and its trusted role as the ‘Bankers to the Nation.’