

Bank of Ceylon reinforces Banking partnerships with India

A moment of appreciation at the Customer Forum - Ascend 2026, attended by Bank of Ceylon officials.

The Bank of Ceylon (BOC) concluded a significant visit to India, reaffirming its commitment to strengthening international banking partnerships and unlocking new regional growth opportunities. The delegation, led by Kavinda de Zoysa, Chairman, Y. A. Jayathilaka, General Manager and CEO, G. A. Jayashantha, Deputy General Manager, and Harischandra Hewage, Chief Manager, reflected BOC's leadership focus on expanding its global presence. The BOC team met with senior Reserve Bank of India officials in Mumbai and Chennai, who expressed satisfaction with BOC's performance and governance and pledged continued support for future expansion. A key highlight was the meeting with Sri Lanka's Deputy High Commissioner to Southern India, Dr. Ganesanathan Geathiswaran, to discuss ways to boost bilateral economic ties. The delegation also engaged with business leaders on cross-border opportunities and financial solutions. Throughout the visit, the delegation, along with Jeyara-nee Gnanasambanthan, Country Manager, engaged in a series of productive discussions with branch staff, focusing on regulatory frameworks, operational efficiencies, and service delivery enhancements. These interactions reflected BOC's continuous drive to elevate customer experience while ensuring full compliance with evolving international banking standards. The event served as a testament to BOC's unwavering commitment to nurturing long-standing relationships, recognizing customer loyalty, and fostering trust across its international network. This landmark visit marks yet another milestone in Bank of Ceylon's journey, reinforcing its role as a trusted partner in driving economic progress and financial connectivity beyond borders.
