

Bank of Ceylon Triumphs as Champions at DMASL Quiz 2025

Posted on

The winning team receiving the trophy and cash prize. The winning team receiving the trophy and cash prize.

The Bank of Ceylon (BOC) continues to set new benchmarks of excellence, emerging victorious at the highly competitive DMASL Quiz 2025. This event brought together the finest minds from the corporate sector, and BOC's exceptional quiz team demonstrated remarkable intellect, teamwork, and dedication to clinch the championship title. The BOC Quiz Team with A D C D Athukorala from the Corporate Branch, S K Liyanage from the Galle City Branch, T I Samarasinghe from the International Division, W C Dias from the International Division, and S S Gurugamage from Trade Services, stood out as a formidable force, excelling across multiple rounds of intense competition. Their profound knowledge, strategic thinking, and synergy played a pivotal role in securing this impressive victory.

The team's achievement is a testament to BOC's unwavering commitment to fostering a culture of continuous learning, intellectual growth, and excellence.

Their triumph brings immense pride to BOC and reinforces its legacy of producing outstanding professionals who excel beyond banking. Bank of Ceylon extends its heartfelt congratulations to the team for their exemplary performance, which brought well-deserved recognition to the Bank.