

BOC Conducts Sand Paving Ceremony In Anuradhapura

Posted on

Senarath Bandara, CEO/General Manager and members of the Corporate and Executive Management participating in the sand paving ceremony.

Bank of Ceylon conducted its annual ceremony of laying clean white sand at the Anuradhapura Jaya Sri Maha Bodhi Meda Maluwa and Pahala Maluwa with the guidance of the Most Venerable Dr Pallegama Siriniwasa Thero, Atamasthanadipathi of Anuradhapura, together with Ranjith Welikannage, Assistant General Manager North Central Province and his team.

Senarath Bandara, CEO/GM, D P K Gunasekara, DGM Treasury, Investment and International, C Amarasingha, DGM Sales and BOC conducts sand paving ceremony in Anuradhapura. Senarath Bandara, CEO/General Manager and members of the Corporate and Executive Management participating in the sand paving ceremony. Channel Management, K E D Sumanasiri, DGM Human Resource, D M L B Dassanayake, DGM Recovery Provinces, members of the executive management and other officials of the Bank also participated in this ceremony.

This ceremony takes place annually with the participation of members of the Bank's staff and many other Buddhist devotees coming from all parts of the country. The most sacred Jaya Sri Maha Bodhi is considered the world's oldest historically recorded significant tree.