

BOC Ran Liya Loan Scheme supports Kanaka Nishani Abeygunawardhana

Kanaka Nishani Abeygunawardhana, MD, Majestic Beach Retreat.

The Bank of Ceylon Ran Liya Loan Scheme supports women entrepreneurs like Kanaka Nishani Abeygunawardhana, MD, Majestic Beach Retreat.

Majestic Beach Retreat is a boutique holiday destination in Thalawila. When the COVID-19 pandemic severely impacted the tourism industry, Abeygunawardhana faced substantial financial losses. To enhance her business, she sought assistance from the BOC Ran Liya Loan Scheme, which helped fund the construction of a swimming pool, attracting more visitors and revitalizing her business. She praised the bank for its ongoing support and guidance, crediting it as a turning point in her entrepreneurial journey. She encouraged other women to utilize the BOC Ran Liya Loan Scheme for financial resources and expertise to grow their businesses. The program continues to empower women entrepreneurs across Sri Lanka, helping them scale operations and boost economic participation.

“If women are thinking of starting a business, the first place they should go for financial support is the Bank of Ceylon. They offer guidance that helps turn business ideas into reality. The Bank of Ceylon has been a reliable and supportive institution. I encourage all aspiring business women to visit BOC today and take the first step toward growing their businesses,” she stated.