Celebrating 10 Years Of Creating Lasting Impressions

An evening of fun, laughter, surprises, music and dancing that went on till the early hours of the morning. Truly a night to remember…Emphasis celebrates 10 years (2003-2013)!

Emphasis, the leading PR and Event Management company in Sri Lanka celebrated 10 years of success in the industry. Headed by the dynamic Founder and Managing Director, Glenda Parthipan, Emphasis has ensured the delivery of the desired outcome for a variety of clientele both local and international, through customised strategic planning and implementation.

Attention to detail and a personalised touch, ensures that each event has a ‘wow’ factor and no two events are the same. Emphasis follows a hands-on approach for each and every aspect from inception to conclusion to ensure the success of all events. As a pioneer in the field, Emphasis has introduced many firsts to Sri Lanka.

The 10th year celebrations organised by the staff was a Surprise Party for Glenda. On arrival at the Lords Restaurant in Negombo, Glenda was taken completely by surprise by the sequence of events that unfolded, which included entertainment by the girls and “GIRLS” of BT Options.

Celebrating
10 years of Creating Last
Impression

Emphasis
Celebrating
10 years of Creating Last
Impressio
To make it happen...
2003-2013

BUSINESS
TODAY
the magazine of the corporate world

