

China to Boost Investment Opportunities in Sri Lanka

Posted on

Chairman of the CZK Huarui International Economy and Trade Development (Beijing) and The Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of CZK International Economy and Trade Development (Beijing) & the Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of CZK International Resources Investment Corporation Liu Yafei, visited Sri Lanka last week with 12 delegates, all belonging to various industries with investment potential in Sri Lanka. During their brief stay in the country, they conducted extensive meetings with Sagala Ratnayake, Chief of Staff for President, Harin Fernando, Minister of Tourism and other Sri Lanka Tourism officials, Prasanna Ranaweera, State Minister of Small and Medium Enterprises, Chairman and officials of the Board of Investment of Sri Lanka, Chairman and officials of the Export Development Board, Chairman, and officials of the Board of Investment of Sri Lanka, Chairman and officials of the Sri Lanka Chamber of Commerce; in an effort to view/assess potential investment opportunities in Sri Lanka.

The visit was endorsed and initiated by Palitha Kohona, Ambassador of Sri Lanka in China and all ground arrangements were organized by Connaissance De Ceylan.

CZK Group.

CZK Group with Chief of Staff for President, Sagala Ratnayake.

CZK Group with Harin Fernando, Minister of Tourism.

CZK Group with Prasanna Ranaweera, State Minister of Small and Medium Enterprises.