

CIMA Organises Discussion On Global Economic Crisis: An Islamic Finance Perspective

Posted on

CIMA Sri Lanka recently organised a sell-out evening discussion on “The Global Economic Crisis: an Islamic Finance Perspective” in its Auditorium.

The discussion was led by Faizal Salieh, Managing Director/CEO, Amana Investments Limited. The speaker kept his audience captive with his presentation. The floor was later opened for a Q & A session. The topic in the recent past has created a lot of interest among business circles in Sri Lanka.

Member Services unit of CIMA Sri Lanka Division regularly organises evening discussions for the benefit of its Members and the business community. These programs are seen as an opportunity to gain new knowledge and to network.
