

ComBank Arrives in Anamaduwa

Posted on

Prof. Ananda Jayawardane, Chairman, Commercial Bank (second from left), flanked by Sanath Manatunge, Managing Director/CEO (third from left), and S. Prabagar, Chief Operating Officer (extreme left), declares the branch open.

The Commercial Bank of Ceylon has opened the 270th branch in its Sri Lanka network in Anamaduwa.

The new branch located at Uswewa Road, Anamaduwa, in the Puttalam District, is equipped with an Automated Teller Machine (ATM), a Cash Recycler Machine (CRM), and a Cash Deposit Machine (CDM) that will provide access to services 24 hours of the day, 365 days of the year. With the opening of this branch, Commercial Bank's network of automated machines in Sri Lanka grows to 950 terminals.

The Anamaduwa branch was formally declared open by Commercial Bank Chairman Prof. Ananda Jayawardane and Sanath Manatunge, Managing Director/CEO, Commercial Bank, accompanied by S. Prabagar, Chief Operating Officer and representatives of the senior and corporate management of the Bank.