Credit Risk Management

VKK is organising a 2 day lecture by Edward Altman on credit risk management: The next great financial challenge to come.

Altman is an international authority on credit risk and prediction of business failures. Effective management of credit risk is crucial due to globalisation of business and consequent morality rates.

The conference will be held on 24-25 February in Mumbai, India. A delegate fee of Rs 9500 (USD 250) will be charged.

The conference will be of direct relevance particularly to Sri Lankan banking and finance professionals.
