

DFCC Bank recognized among Sri Lanka’s Great Places to Work

Paduma Subasinghe, Senior Vice President – Human Resources, DFCC Bank receiving the award.

DFCC Bank has been officially certified as a Great Place to Work (GPTW), a global recognition awarded to organizations that foster high-trust, high-performance workplace cultures. ence

The certification was awarded following an independent survey conducted among DFCC Bank employees, with results automatically qualifying the Bank for this distinction. Findings confirmed that DFCC Bank continues to nurture a workplace that is empowering, collaborative, and inclusive, meeting international benchmarks for excellence.

Paduma Subasinghe, Senior Vice President – Human Resources, commented, “Success begins with our people. This recognition reflects the trust, energy, and collaboration our employees bring every day. Guided by our PACCE values – Passion, Authenticity, Courage, Collaboration, and Excellence – we are committed to building a workplace where individuals feel supported, inspired, and empowered to thrive. As a bank aspiring to be Sri Lanka’s most customer-centric Bank and the easiest to work with, this journey must begin with our people, because only when they are empowered can we truly deliver excellence to our customers.”

As one of Sri Lanka’s most respected financial institutions with a legacy spanning over 70 years, DFCC Bank continues to place people at the center of its progress. From professional development opportunities to initiatives promoting inclusivity and wellbeing, the Bank is committed to creating an environment where employees feel valued and motivated to grow.