

Dorset Chamber of Commerce visits Sri Lanka

Dorset Chamber of Commerce will fly in a trade delegation into Sri Lanka during the first week of June. The group will comprise nearly 20 members from a variety of diverse fields and will be headed by Alan Bartlett, chairman, UK-Sri Lanka Business Council.

The UK-Sri Lanka Business Council which is involved in encouraging two-way trade between the two countries is also organizing a Sri Lanka Week in November this year to coincide with the Inward Trade Mission to UK by the Colombo Chamber of Commerce
