The premium skincare range.

Dr Kevin Chua Medical and Aesthetics from Singapore caters to patients' aesthetic needs and offers medical services that includes a premium skincare range. The clinic co-founded by Dr Kevin Chua and his wife Dr Iroshini Chua applies the latest cutting-edge technology for aesthetic treatments.

The duo have collaborated with Dr Nilani Kaluarachi from the Western Family Practice to arrange consultations for Sri Lankan clients. Dr Nilani Kaluarachi will assess clients and perform a pre-medical examination before making an ap□pointment in Singapore.

Dr Iroshini Chua commented, "We have been practicing aesthetics for the past 12 years. Each space in the clinic is very private. The rooms are relaxing and soothing. It is ideal for those to pam□per themselves with a facial or body slimming treatment after a busy day."

The treatments at the clinic include PicoWay, CoolSculpting, Ultherapy, Venus Freeze, HydraFa□cial, ReduStim, Rejuran.

Dr Kevin Chua explained, "We are recognized by the Ministry of Health in Singapore. The Min□istry of Health first scrutinizes everything that we offer. We also introduce new products to the clinic on a trial basis first and then test in-house."
