With over 18 years experience in the travel industry, one of Sri Lanka's finest travel companies, Dream Holidays the leisure arm of Worldlink Travels, relocated to Wellawatte recently. The new office is situated a few hundred yards from Galle Road on Dharamarama Road, which is opposite Savoy.

" We have been at the Galadari Hotel for over 18 years , but with the situation in Sri Lanka becoming more conducive tourism, a whole new world will open up for Sri Lankans and the travel market will grow. Hence we want to offer our clients a state of the art travel facility. Fur-ther the new office is at a very convenient location with easy access and ample parking space" said Ahintha Amerasinghe the Chairman and Managing Director of Dream Holidays.

The new Dream Holidays office offers its customers attractive travel packages and other travel services in a state of the art surrounding. The colourful, pleasing atmosphere of the office and staff provides the perfect setting to choose your ideal holiday experience. "We encourage people to come to our office, look at the travel packages on offer and then choose their destination," said Ahintha Amerasinghe.

Dream Holidays holds the unique record of organising the entire travel programme including the conference schedule for the largest group to ever depart Sri Lanka as a single group. “This was a group of 470 people from Eagle Insurance who went on a 3 day programme to Malaysia in 2007. In fact the second and the third largest groups have also been managed by Dream Holidays. Our team is highly experienced and competent in managing such conference pack-ages, they give attention to detail to make the event a success” said Gerard Amerasinghe the Director Operations of the Worldlink Travel Group.

Kaysha Perera the General Manager of Dream Holidays said “In addition to managing large groups, we have some excellent packages to individuals and families, ranging from a honey-moon in Cook Island in the Pacific Ocean to a 3 day shopping tour to Bangkok. We handle the entire package from visas to tickets to hotel bookings. Furthermore we are able to issue tickets on any airline within minutes”
Worldlink, having been the agents for Princess Cruises for the past few years has opened a cruise centre at their new premises to handle Princess and Cunard reservations exclusively. Cunard is the owning company of the world famous cruise ship Queen Mary 2. The cruise center is linked directly to the POLAR reservations system of Princess Cruise; hence a cabin on any cruise can be booked within a very short time.
“To celebrate the opening of the cruise centre, we are offering a 7 night cruise to Alaska for USD 599. In addition we have excellent packages to the Carribean Islands, Mexico, South America and Europe. The Baltic Cruise, sailing from Copenhagen to Warsaw, Estonia and other exotic destinations is extremely popular. Further due to our promotional rates, it is cheaper to go on a cruise than staying in a hotel” said Ramain Niyangoda, who manages Princess Cruises in Sri Lanka.
Having the experience and skills to organise travel packages to meet every requirement, Dream Holidays is committed in making your dream holiday a reality.
