

Emirates offers Nights in Hamburg

Emirates is offering complimentary accommodation and car rental in Hamburg to commemorate the launch of its daily services to the German city on 1 March, 2006.

The offer, valid from 1 March to 31 May, provides travellers flying Emirates First Class to Hamburg with a three-night complimentary stay at the Raffles Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten plus a free day rental of a BMW 7 Series car, or a week car rental in Hamburg.

Business Class travellers can enjoy a two-night stay at the Raffles Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten or five day car rental; while Economy Class travellers can avail of one complimentary night stay or three days car rental in Hamburg.

The car rental option includes an Audi A4 (or similar) with unlimited mileage. Hamburg is Emirates fourth gateway to Germany. The airline currently flies twice a day to Munich, Frankfurt and Dusseldorf. Germany is one of Emirates most important markets and its new daily service to Hamburg will further strengthen this position.

As one of the host cities for the 2006 FIFA World Cup, Hamburg is gearing up to receive thousands of visitors during the tournament, and Emirates new services are expected to be welcomed by soccer fans around the world who are seeking convenient travel connections to Germany.
