

GAIN 23RD LOGISTICS SYMPOSIUM IN CHINA

Jayantha Liyanagamage, President/CEO, GAIN Intl Group addressing the gathering.

Global Alliance Integrated Network (GAIN), an organization specializing in logistics concluded their 23rd Annual Symposium in Ningbo, China. The four-day conference was represented by 46 countries and was a combination of business forums, sight seeing opportunities, one-to-one meeting sessions and entertainment. The 23rd GAIN China Logistics Symposium attracted member representatives from Canada, France, Australia, South Africa, Austria, Turkey and from all regions across the globe. The aim was to prove what China can offer to the rest of the world in relation to One Belt - One Road. The Belt & Road Initiative (BRI) is a global development strategy, adopted by the Chinese Government. The host member of the 23rd Logistics Symposium 2019 was Ningbo Discovery International Logistics.

The member countries of GAIN are benefitted through the exposure that they receive from the international network and global coverage.

Jayantha Liyanagamage, CEO and Managing Director, JCiLO Logistics is the first Sri Lankan Logistics entrepreneur to host the International Logistics Symposium in China. The member countries of GAIN are benefitted through the exposure that they receive from the international network and global coverage. They have been able to build a long-term relationship, based on experience, flexibility and dedication to ensure the high valued cargo of their clients is nominated throughout the logistics chain. Member countries of GAIN now 15 members from 70+ countries have put forward their second family generation to run and manage their business, which signifies the great stability of GAIN's working procedures and its culture. The 24th Logistics Symposium would be held in Muscat, Sultanate of Oman in September 2020. The host member would be Muscat Intl Shipping and Logistics LLC Oman. GAIN holds its annual event every year in a member country on continental level. GAIN values their members through the Member Survey Analysis and AZ TRANS sarl Morocco being selected as the Best Member Award Winner 2018. They are awarded a trophy and one-year free membership as their recognition by the GAIN management.

Jayantha Liyanagamage, CEO/Managing Director, JCILO Logistics (seated at the centre) and the delegates who attended the GAIN 23rd Logistics Symposium.