The latest venture by Royal Lanka Agencies GMT, an exclusive luxury wristwatch store, was unveiled at Majestic City, Colombo 4. An array of luxury watches are showcased in the chic black and white themed showroom.

The Main Focus Of GMT Is To Create A Concept Of Affordable Design, Hence The Store Has A Collection Of Watches For A Variety Of Prices.

The store was opened under the patronage of Chief Guest Sebastian Lukose, Head of Merchandising, South Asian Region, Raymond Weil and the Proprietors of GMT, A D A Jawzi and A D A Jezmi. The main focus of GMT is to create a concept of affordable design, hence the store has a collection of watches for a variety of prices; from the high-end brands to simple yet elegant watches. The glass display at the showroom is dedicated for branded and limited edition time pieces. The store caters to the needs of customers in search of a quality and timeless purchase that makes a statement.

GMT has in store watches from luxury brands such as, Raymond Weil, Victorinox Swiss Army, Maserati, Police, Boss, Rue de Rhone, Lacoste, Timberland, Hanowa and Swiss Military. These brands have their own line of patrons, to whom GMT promises only the best in terms of quality and service. With the youth especially in mind, GMT also offers the latest styles in watches.
