Hemas Hospitals was felici tated with gold awards in the Healthcare Services Sector and Overall Large categories, of the National Business Excellence Awards. The event, organized by the National Chamber of Commerce of Sri Lanka, appreciates the exemplary efforts of the country's top corpora tions in garnering them success in their respective sectors throughout the year.

"It is indeed deeply gratify[]ing to take home two coveted gold awards at such a celebrat[]ed national event. Such an honor does not just underscore the high standards upheld at all of our hospitals and labora[]tory chain, but also encour[]ages us to expand the bounda[]ries of the Sri Lankan healthcare sector by continually improving and innovating," stated Dr Lakith Peiris, MD/President of the Association of Private Hos[]pitals and Nursing Homes, Hemas Hospitals and Labora[]tories.

"These awards also celebrate the hardwork and dedication of our staff, without which none of this would have been pos[]sible. They are the very em[]bodiment of our operational ethos and are the reason why I am supremely confident that Hemas Hospitals will ascend to even greater heights in the years ahead."

The winners of a National Business Excellence Award are subjected to a thorough evalu[]ation process led by a panel of distinguished professionals and academics. The winners' ap[]plications are first judged against a seven-point criterion before undergoing further as[]sessment across three other stages consisting of a desk review, interviews and the judges' final review.

Hemas Hospitals' latest triumph adds to the series of eminent awards it has captured within the past nine months. During this period it has achieved a total of 18 top na[]tional and international acco[]lades and in the process earned itself the title of the most feted hospital in Sri Lanka. These trophies include three Healthcare Asia Awards and one Hospital Management Asia Award in the international arena, making it the only hos[]pital group to claim a major foreign award this year, bring[]ing international recognition to the Sri Lankan healthcare industry.
