HNB and 3W Global Education join hands to empower students

Sanjay Wijemanne, Deputy General Manager – Retail Banking Group, HNB (central); Stefan Moreas, Managing Director, 3W Education, exchanging the MoU in the presence of (from left) Anjula Sampath, Mortgage Advisor, HNB; Sampath Dodanwela, Manager – Home & Personal Loans, HNB; Dhanushka Rajapakse, Manager – Bambalapitiya, HNB; Kanchana Karunagama, Assistant General Manager – Personal Financial Services, HNB; Roshan Gurusinghe, Chief Commercial Officer, 3W Education; 3W Education and Arshini Skandarajah, Chief Operating Officer.

HNB has entered into a partnership with 3W Global Education to facilitate access to affordable financial solutions for students. The partnership will introduce a comprehensive education loan package with low-interest rates during the promotional period. The event was graced by the presence of Sanjay Wijemanne, Deputy General Manager – Retail Banking Group, HNB; Kanchana Karunagama, Assistant General Manager – Personal Financial Services, HNB; Stefan Moreas, Managing Director, 3WGE; Roshan Gurusinghe, Chief Commercial Officer; and Arshini Skandarajah, Chief Operating Officer.

Kanchana Karunagama, Assistant General Manager – Personal Financial Services, HNB, commented, “We consider education a transformative tool that can change lives for the better. We are honored to collaborate with 3W Global Education to provide students with affordable financing options that can unlock opportunities for higher education and more promising futures. This partnership is a testament to our commitment to empower the youth of Sri Lanka and foster a well-educate d workforce.” HNB will offer special interest rates during the promotional period, along with flexible repayment options tailored to each student’s budget.

Stefan Moraes, Managing Director of 3W Global Education, shared similar sentiments, stating, “We are thrilled to partner with HNB to make higher education more accessible to students across Sri Lanka. This collaboration will provide students with the financial support they need to pursue their academic aspirations and contribute to the future of Sri Lanka. Our goal is to offer students the finest educational opportunities, and we believe this partnership will make a significant difference in the lives of many.”

At 3W Global Education, we believe in the transformative power of education, and our partnership with HNB is closely aligned with our mission to aid students in achieving their academic dreams. Together, we hope to provide financial solutions that can help students overcome their financial challenges and embark on enriching overseas academic journeys.