

HNB Investment Bank renews collaboration with CFA Society Sri Lanka

L-R: Shehan Stembo, CEO, HNB Securities, Prashan Fernando, CEO, HNB Stockbrokers, handing over the sponsorship cheque to Rashmi Peiris Paranavitane, CFA, President of CFA Society Sri Lanka, Nadika Ranasinghe, CFA, Vice President, Travis Gomez, CFA, Director and Aruna Alwis, CEO of CFA Society Sri Lanka.

HNB Investment Bank has renewed its partnership with CFA Society Sri Lanka as a Silver Partner for the tenth consecutive year, reaffirming its longstanding commitment to advancing Sri Lanka's investment and financial services industry.

The renewed sponsorship reflects HNB Investment Bank's continued support for CFA Society Sri Lanka's efforts to promote ethics, professionalism, knowledge-sharing, and industry excellence among investment and finance professionals in the country.

Rashmi Peiris Paranavitane, CFA, President, CFA Society Sri Lanka, said the Society is pleased to continue its valued relationship with HNB Investment Bank, whose consistent support has contributed meaningfully to the Society's development initiatives over the years.

She noted that the partnership would further strengthen CFA Society Sri Lanka's efforts to create impactful industry engagement, support professional development, and promote globally recognized standards across the local financial services sector.

Expressing his views on behalf of HNB Investment Bank, Prashan Fernando, Director/Chief Executive Officer, HNB Stockbrokers, said, "We are pleased to renew our partnership with CFA Society Sri Lanka as a Silver Partner. As an investment banking institution, we recognize the importance of collaborating with professional bodies that champion ethics, governance, and global best practices. Through this continued partnership, we look forward to supporting initiatives that foster knowledge-sharing, professional growth, and the continued development of Sri Lanka's capital markets."

The renewed collaboration demonstrates the shared commitment of HNB Investment Bank and the CFA Society Sri Lanka to raising professional standards, fostering industry dialogue, and supporting the long-term growth of Sri Lanka's financial services sector.