HNB has renewed its partnership with Toyota Lanka to offer comprehensive leasing solutions, making Toyota vehicles and equipment more accessible across Sri Lanka.

The partnership covers Toyota passenger vehicles, Lite Ace trucks and vans, Hino commercial vehicles, forklifts, and machinery, offering flexible financing options and value-added benefits. Passenger vehicle customers can access special interest rates, structured leasing facilities, and residual value options of up to 50 percent. Commercial vehicle and forklift customers will benefit from preferential leasing rates. Additional benefits include an HNB credit card with the first-year annual fee waived and discounted insurance premiums through HNB General Insurance.

Damith Pallegawatte, MD and CEO, HNB, emphasized the partnership's commitment to accessible vehicle ownership and financial convenience.

Toyota Lanka will provide free vehicle registration, a three-year or 100,000-kilometre warranty, and three complimentary services. Forklift customers receive a two-year or 6,000-hour warranty and three labour-free services.

Manohara Atukorala, MD and CEO, Toyota Lanka, highlighted the collaboration's contribution to its 'Mobility for All' vision.
