

ICASL Welcomes President of IFAC

IL-R) Preethi Jayewardene, Chairman of Promotions and Publicity, ICASL, Indrajith Fernando, Vice President of SAFA, Graham Ward, President of IFAC, Yohan Perera, ICASL and Nishan Fernando, Vice President of ICASL.

The Institute of Chartered Accountancy of Sri Lanka (ICASL) welcomed Graham Ward, President of the International Federation of Accountants (IFAC) to Sri Lanka. Ward was elected as the president of IFAC in 2004. He served on the IFAC board from 2000 to 2004. During this period he helped create the Task Force on Rebuilding Public Confidence in Financial Reporting and developing its final report. He is currently in a senior partner within the Global Energy and Utilities Group at PricewaterhouseCoopers in the UK.