JAT Clinches Gold at the National Business Excellence Awards

The awards were accepted by Wasantha Gunaratne, Director Of Sales And Technical, Gavin Vandort, General Manager of Project Sales, and Ruwani Samarakoon, Manager of Corporate Planning on behalf of JAT Holdings.

JAT Holdings bagged Gold in the Trading Sector Category and Merit in the Extra Large Category at the National Business Excellence Awards 2021 (NBEA), organized by the National Chamber of Commerce of Sri Lanka. Reaffirming its position as the industry leader, JAT Holdings walked home with the Gold Award in the Trading Sector for the fourth consecutive year, recognizing the company’s outstanding performance excellence, significant contribution to economic prosperity, and continued commitment toward environmental sustainability. The awards were based upon comprehensive criteria set out by the National Chamber of Commerce, where applicants were evaluated based on their: Excellence in Strategy and Leadership, Excellence in Corporate Governance and Strategy, Excellence in Capacity Building, Excellence in Performance Management, Excellence in Local and Global Market Reach, Excellence in Corporate Social Responsibility and Environmental Sustainability, and finally, in their Excellence in Business and Financial Results. Achieving this accolade reflects JAT's brilliance in each aspect, cementing its prowess in business excellence yet again.

Nishal Ferdinando, the Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer of JAT Holdings, says, "Regardless of the challenging business environment we have had to operate in over the past few years, JAT Holdings has remained committed to upholding our values, processes, and people above all else. This has aided us greatly in achieving a significant milestone today. It is truly an honor to be recognized in such high prestige at an industry event of this caliber, and we look forward to continuing this momentum in the years to come."
