

London Stock Exchange Group Technology Wins Best Exporter Award

Dee Liyanwela, Global Head – Shared Services Centers and Head – LSEG Technology Sri Lanka receives the award for Best Exporter - ICT Sector at the 23rd Presidential Export Awards.

LSEG Technology was bestowed with Best Exporter award in Information and Communications Technology (ICT) Sector at the 23rd edition of Presidential Export Awards presented by the Export Development Board (EDB) of Sri Lanka.

London Stock Exchange Group (LSEG) is an international markets infrastructure business. Its diversified global business focuses on capital formation, intellectual property and risk and balance sheet management. LSEG operates an open access model, offering choice and partnership to customers across all of its businesses.

This marks the fourth time LSEG Technology (formerly MillenniumIT) has won this award in recognition of the organization's exemplary record of exporting Sri Lankan engineering to the world.

Dee Liyanwela, the Global Head of Shared Services Centers and Head of LSEG Technology, Sri Lanka said: "Winning this award exemplifies the ethos of excellence that is practiced at LSEG Technology. We are truly honored to be presented with this title for the fourth time."

He further went on to state, “We have always looked to create a positive impact within the country as well as the economy through our business practices. Winning this award highlights the trust our customers around the world over have placed in Sri Lankan engineering; providing fintech solutions that drive global economies forward.”

LSEG Technology’s market-leading trading and post-trade products help improve operational efficiencies for over 40 financial market infrastructure and financial services firms.
