

Mandarina Colombo Opens Its Doors

Mandarina Colombo, a 80-room fully serviced business hotel, opened in the bustling capital city. Located along the Galle Road in Kollupitiya, the city hotel is strategically positioned with easy access to many places of interest such as businesses, entertainment hubs, restaurants and healthcare centres.

Mandarina Colombo, which is owned and managed by Macksons Properties is the first of its kind by the Macksons Holdings group. The hotel is designed to offer a memorable leisure experience for both business and pleasure. With spacious and luxurious rooms on 11 floors, the hotel offers unobstructed views of the Indian Ocean and the city skyline. Mandarina Colombo is also 45 minutes away from the Bandaranaike International Airport.

“We are pleased to announce the opening of our first city hotel, Mandarina Colombo. We believe we have a splendid property in the centre of Colombo and are looking forward to welcome both Sri Lankan and foreign guests. We are a diversified conglomerate involved in property development, manufacturing and retail. With this, our newest venture, we hope to make a positive impact in the hospitality industry,” explained Milfer Makeen, Chairman, Macksons Holdings.

Macksons Holdings is a Sri Lankan company with diversified interests. The Group is well-known for the brands Multilac and Macktiles. “Our challenge is to introduce a different culture into the Island’s hospitality industry,” added Mizver Makeen, MD, Macksons Holdings.

Guests at Mandarina Colombo can avail themselves to the hotel’s international-standard amenities, personalised for a comfortable and pleasant stay. The rooms are categorised as Premium, Deluxe and Standard. Each floor of the hotel includes all 3 categories of the rooms and they overlook amazing views. The needs and comforts of guests have been taken into account in terms of in-room features and facilities.
