Manmandir Saree And Jewellery Store Opens Its Doors In Main Street

Manmandir Saree and Jewellery store, the newest bridal shop of Pettah was opened at 241, Main Street. Housed on a main floor and spread out in a spacious area of 2,000 square feet, Manmandir caters to fulfill all bridal necessities under one roof. Sarees, jewellery items and more, imported from various countries could be purchased at affordable prices as the store puts emphasis on matching the budget requirement of each client. Therefore, the clients have access to a wide range of selections from low to high end designs that reflect the most current trends in the world of bridal fashion. All selections at the store are hand picked and ordered after much thought, care and attention to detail to factors such as skin colour, culture and wedding styles in Sri Lanka.

An array of colours for the wedding day such as white, beige, champaign, bronze and more as well as colours that are suitable for the homecoming are available for prospective brides to choose one that matches both one's expectations and budget. Furthermore, the store has jewellery to choose from as well.

Nanadakumar who is the Manager of Manmandir has a wealth of experience in the bridal industry that spans over 22 years.

"There are three objectives in opening the store," said Nandakumar. "One is the budget or affordable prices, second is providing suitable items for a Sri Lankan bride and the third is providing all bridal needs under one roof."

He further went on to say, "many people are afraid to talk about their budget and will buy something unsatisfactory due to budget constraints. But in Manmandir we have high end designs done using affordable materials. So people don't have to worry about money when coming to Manmandir." For those who are planning a wedding for the year 2014, Manmandir would be the ideal place to shop as the store carries the latest trends in bridal fashion.

"Under the management of Nandakumar, I believe we can forge ahead with confidence," said P R Narayanaswami (Shankar), Owner of Manmandir. "He has a vast experience in the bridal industry and will be able to provide customers with advice and great selections."
