Mansion Square Welcomes Singaporean Delegates

Mansion Square, a new luxury boutique villa in Dehiwela, Colombo, hosted members from a Singaporean business delegation. Cody Lee, Senior Director, Singapore Business Federation; R Ragunathan, Managing Director, Inno Trust Solutions Singapore; Mohammad Faizal, Senior Operations Manager, Securistate, Singapore and Vic Mohan, Director, Star Anise, Singapore were among the delegates who enjoyed a casual evening at the villa. A M Thalha, Coordinating Secretary of Islamic Affairs, Ministry of Defence Sri Lanka as well as Prabath C Perera, Coordinating Secretary, Ministry of Defence were also present.

The delegates from Singapore were accompanying Singaporean Prime Minister Lee Hsien who was in Sri Lanka for an official visit.

> Mansion Square, A New Luxury Boutique Villa In Dehiwela, Colombo, Hosted Members From A Singaporean Business Delegation.

Mansion Square is an elegant boutique villa, which ensures guests are treated to a luxurious and comfortable stay. The villa facilitates a warm, intimate atmosphere with personalised services that meet hospitality standards. Mansion Square is a sanctuary nestled within a charming neighbourhood. The interior at Mansion Square is elegant with Burmese teak flooring and charming Singaporean lightings adding a stately effect.

The Mansion Square has five suites, the King’s Suite, Queens Court, The Princess, Duke’s Chamber and Duchess. There is a plush TV Lounge, a conference lounge ideal for meetings, swimming pool and a recreational room with games.

The Mansion Restaurant and the delightful coffee bar cater to both in-house guests as well as walk-in diners.

