Mewire Rolling, the holding company of Melwa Group, is a leader in the steel industry and a brand led by a strong Board of Directors and senior management team. The Group now focuses on investment areas such as hotel and leisure, real estate and property development, on construction and interior solutions as well as plantations, chemicals and paints.

“Today we are making history in Sri Lanka. With Hilton being in the business for 30 years, and now having to promote six hotels in a row along with Melwa, we will surely be able to reach the tourism demand here.” stated Professor Ranjith Bandara.

Groundwork in the six hotels including three five-star properties is currently ongoing with the 106-room Negombo Resort and Yala boutique hotel to start operations in 2019. The other four projects, a 97-room hotel in Nuwara Eliya, a 200-room transit hotel in Katunayake, 200-room hotel in Kosgoda and a 150-room hotel in Kandy are expected to be completed by early 2025. The total investment is 15 billion rupees.

“We at Hilton are honoured and humbled that Melwa Hotels and Resorts have chosen Hilton as strategic partner in developing world class hospitality in key tourist destinations,” stated William Costley.
