

NDB Named ‘Best Domestic Bank In Sri Lanka’

National Development Bank was recognized as the ‘Best Domestic Bank in Sri Lanka’ for the first time at the Asiamoney Best Bank Awards. The awards ceremony, which took place at JW Marriott, Pacific Place, Hong Kong felicitated NDB with awards for: ‘Best Domestic Bank in Sri Lanka 2019’, ‘Best Bank for Premium Banking Sri Lanka 2019’ and ‘Best Corporate and Investment Bank Sri Lanka 2019’ for the NDB Investment Bank of the NDB Group.

Commenting on the awards, Dimantha Seneviratne, Group Chief Executive Officer, NDB emphasized, “Winning these awards from Asiamoney is a proud moment for us, and a testament to our ability to demonstrate growth, relative out-performance compared to peers and the ability to adapt to changing market conditions and client needs. These awards reaffirm our dedication to support our clients and customers for their success. The strengths of NDB are showcased across the entirety of the corporate and investment banking operations.” Winning the “Best Domestic Bank in Sri Lanka 2019” and the “Best Bank for Premium Banking Sri Lanka 2019” titles for the first time is a testimony for the dedication of the team at NDB.

The award for ‘Best Bank for Premium Banking Services’ was won in recognition of the Bank’s years of consistent effort, innovative thinking and fruitful labor.

Additionally, NDBIB was named “Best Corporate and Investment Bank Sri Lanka 2019” for the third consecutive year. NDBIB is the investment banking subsidiary of National Development Bank Capital Holdings.
