

Pan Asia Bank marks 30 years with a Commemorative Stamp

Posted on

Aravinda Perera, Chairman, Pan Asia Bank, and Naleen Edirisinghe, Director/CEO, Pan Asia Bank (center) seen with Pan Asia Bank senior management, celebrating the commemorative postage stamp.

Pan Asia Bank marked a significant milestone in its journey of excellence and innovation with the official launch of a commemorative postage stamp to celebrate its 30th anniversary. The special edition stamp, issued in collaboration with the Department of Posts, symbolizes the Bank's three decades of trusted service and its commitment to driving sustainable financial growth in Sri Lanka. As the truly Sri Lankan bank, this milestone marks a significant milestone in its journey of excellence and innovation with the official launch of a commemorative postage stamp to celebrate its 30th anniversary. The special edition stamp, issued in collaboration with the Department of Posts, symbolizes the Bank's three decades of trusted service and its commitment to driving sustainable financial growth in Sri Lanka.

Lanka. As the truly Sri Lankan bank, this milestone holds national significance, reflecting the Bank's deep-rooted presence in the country's financial landscape and its ongoing contribution to Sri Lanka's economic development.

The launch event was held under the patronage of Aravinda Perera, Chairman of Pan Asia Bank, and Naleen Edirisinghe, Director/CEO, with the participation of distinguished guests, members of the Bank's Board, senior management, and officials from the Department of Posts.

Aravinda Perera reflected on the Bank's journey, stating, "This commemorative stamp is a tribute to the trust our customers have placed in us over the past three decades. From humble beginnings, Pan Asia Bank has grown into one of Sri Lanka's most progressive and customer-focused financial institutions, guided by a vision of innovation, integrity, and inclusivity."

Naleen Edirisinghe, Director/CEO, Pan Asia Bank, said, "This stamp represents the story of our customers, employees, and partners who have been part of Pan Asia Bank's remarkable journey. Every milestone we've reached has been possible because of their trust and belief in us. As we celebrate 30 years, we look ahead with renewed purpose, to continue being a bank that listens, innovates, and serves with heart."