Pan Asia Bank Partners with IBSL

Naleen Edirisinghe, CEO of Pan Asia Bank exchanging the document with C.P.A. Karunatilake, Director General of IBSL, in the presence of other officials.

Pan Asia Bank has partnered with the Institute of Bankers of Sri Lanka (IBSL), which provides practical training for banking and finance students to build their professional careers. This collaboration reaffirms Pan Asia Bank's dedication to developing talent and offering practical learning to future banking professionals. Pan Asia Bank will provide students with important training opportunities based on IBSL's Practical Training Guidelines through this partnership.

Naleen Edirisinghe, Chief Executive Officer, Pan Asia Bank, expressed excitement about the partnership, emphasizing its potential to significantly contribute to the practical training of banking students and positively impact their career journeys.

C.P.A. Karunatilake, the Director General of IBSL, highlighted the collaboration as a testament to their commitment to nurturing talent and equipping new banking professionals with essential skills. He praised Pan Asia Bank's dedication to mentoring, financial assistance, and career development, aligning perfectly with IBSL's objectives.

This partnership underscores Pan Asia Bank’s commitment to developing banking education and the growth and sustainability of the country’s banking industry.