Outstanding performers from amongst its industry-best employee base shone under the spotlight of Pan Asia Bank's Annual Retail Awards. The high performers received rewards and recognition for contributing to making the 2022 financial year a success for the Bank amidst the challenging macroeconomic outset.

The Chairman, Deputy Chairman, and CEO of Pan Asia Bank, along with the Corporate Management, Branch Managers, and staff, attended the Annual Retail Awards.

Key awards were bestowed on the following winners: Best Business Unit of the Year was won by the Pawning division; the Colombo Outer Area bagged Best Area award; and the coveted Best Branch of the Year award was won by the Borella branch followed by Dam Street and Jaffna branches as first and second runners up respectively.

Naleen Edirisinghe, Director and CEO of Pan Asia Bank, said, "I am delighted to have the outstanding performers for 2022 rewarded on this major platform of the Retail Awards because it is an affirmation of their exceptional effort and skill in their respective fields. In 2022, Pan Asia Bank posted a positive performance amidst many adversities emerging from challenging macro-economic conditions. The task was not easy, but the entire team came together to ensure the Bank's growth. Congratulation to all the winners - you have made us proud today."

Pan Asia Bank was also ranked amongst Business Today's Top 40 business organisations for 2021-2022.
