People’s Bank hands over a newly built home to an underprivileged family

At the opening of the newly built home in Padaviya.

People’s Bank handed over a newly built home to a low-income family in Padaviya, Weli Oya, as part of its ‘Mahajana Mehewara’ social responsibility program.

Funded by the People’s Bank Buddhist Society, the Sri Lanka Army’s ninth Battalion of the Gajaba Regiment, together with staff members of the Anuradhapura Regional Head Office and branches in the region, provided the construction manpower for the home. Clive Fonseka, CEO/GM, People’s Bank, Sri Lanka Army 9th Battalion of the Gajaba Regiment Second-in-Command Sujith Karunanayake, DGM- Banking Support Services Nipunika Wijayaratne, Head of Marketing Nalaka Wijayawardana, DGM- Channel Management Naleen Pathiranage, Anuradhapura Regional Manager Asitha Danawalawithana, Assistant Regional Managers, Padaviya Branch Manager, Buddhist Society members and bank’s staff members were present.